Propose Civil Service For City Employees

Wide and safe highways, a street sweeper, civil service, a new annexation, increased garbage rates and firemen apparel were among the many matters taken up Monday by the city council.

In a letter from the State Division of highways, the estimated cost for new traffic signals and other work at the Campbell avenue intersection with the Los Gatos-San Jose road is $50,800 of which the City of Campbell is asked to contribute $5100 as a one third share for lights. Council wants to proceed but asked City Engineer Mark Thomas to point out to state engineers that a bottleneck will develop if the road is widened to four lanes for a distance of 700 feet each side of the intersection, the road now being four lanes for 1000 feet south of Hamilton avenue and it would then narrow down to two lanes for 850 feet, then broaden as four lanes for 750 feet to Campbell avenue. City want to have the 850 feet in four lanes and would even go so far as to help in the cost if Chapter 20 tax funds can be used. The Union avenue crossing is also to have wider intersection but the gap in between is unincorporated so the County would have to act if that bottleneck is to be corrected.

On Winchester Road at Hamilton avenue, the city will paint a double line so speedsters won't pass other cars. Other streets about town will be minus the services of the street sweeper until budget time because the high school has been told they can't loan it out any more. Mayor Richard Morton said the law already says cars are not to pass at an intersection but to be sure about it the lines will be painted and police told to enforce the law.

A petition was filed and referred to the city attorney for annexing eight acres of the J. F. Rickman property off Campbell avenue east of the San Jose-Los Gatos road and south toward El Solyo. Joseph Gomes, former councilman said he felt more property to Leigh avenue should be annexed to even the east boundaries.

Scavengers want a 25c increase in home collection per week and a 20% commercial hike, which council granted in keeping with action by other cities on order from the county to have the stuff covered so smog can be controlled, the firm needing special equipment for the work, rates to be effective April 1.

William Enochs, city accountant said thought should be given to civil service for city employees to keep qualified personnel with job protection and retirement benefits, something which may be a burden to the city but which is essential. It will be on the agenda at the March 14 meeting.

Fire Chief Jack Scott was told he could spend some $473 already budgeted for helmets, turnout coats, gas mask, first aid kit and salvage cover so that the city qualifies for insurance claims in the event of injuries, in accordance with a State Compensation Company directive.

Then there was the matter of rats in the sewer lines which Dr. Weldon Turner said could be a health menace and even block up the flow when they cease to be frisky, but Stephen Goodman of Sanitation No. 4 already had filed a report on the sewer system, repair costs $400, flushing entire system $1777, rodent control $140 and recommended laterals $190. Goodman said his office is getting checks made out to the city for sewer service so council said it would be alright to cash them if he makes periodic accounting.

Council said Chamber of Commerce should have someone present to discuss industrial progress before any part of the $1000 budgeted for this could be released, and they told Dr. Jasmine what had to be done if a carnival is set up for Old Settler day celebration. They set March 28 for a hearing on resolution for city clerk fixing dates on variance and use permit hearings. Approved three zoning ordinances, published on page 4, introduced another ordinance amending the licensing ordinance, gave Fireman Bruce Gammon permanent status, and reported interest in another more feasible route for the PG&E high voltage line to a proposed new substation on the banks of Los Gatos Creek, north of Hamilton avenue.

Nestor Barrett, planning consultant reported he went to a meeting last Thursday at the city hall in San Jose with Mirassou, Steindorf and Kirk all of Campbell, along with PG&E men, San Jose and County of Santa Clara officials to study the proposed route. San Jose already approved the line could extend to Leigh avenue across Dry Creek Road, 100 feet on Foxworthy Road and Custer avenue. Ray Long, PGE said company has 220,000 volt line from Moss Landing to Sunol over the hills in the eastern part of the county and they want to tap the line at the Coyote substation with another line on a 20 acre site near Monta Vista. The main line intersects at Vasona junction. Two 110 KV lines take off to Cabana avenue, then turn at right angles across Leigh avenue runs north over Hamilton avenue near the Nottingham avenue intersection and on 1000 feet to another right angle turn to a 6-acre site on the Keesling property south of the creek just opposite Dick's super market now under construction.

Barrett said a new substation is proposed for this site with high voltage lines to run in four directions as a major substation for the growing Campbell area. PG&E is buying 80 foot right of way for the line and it has to be clear, the land to be rented out to truck farmers. Lines on towers 24 feet square at the bast, 120 feet high and set 800 feet apart. County flood control district would like to have it on towers, but City of Campbell would like to have the lines buried. Cost is about $45,000 per mile in the air exclusive of right of way and five to ten times that much if underground.

PG&E said rights of way deals are 75% completed between Monta Vista and Vasona and that a number of parcels have been purchased on a line to pass through Campbell.

CARLOAD SHIPMENTS SET NEW RECORD THIS YEAR IN CAMPBELL

That more carload shipping is to be done in Campbell in 1955 than any previous year because of the substantial building movement under way and in spite of the closing of Hunt's Cannery, was indicated today by Southern Pacific officials to the Chamber of Commerce. For the first two months of 1955 there were 225 carloads in and out of Campbell, which is as much as was shipped all during the year of 1954. The shipping is expected to continue through March 15 and resume after the summer canning shipments come in.

The removal of heavy canning equipment from the Hunts plant has made storage space available. More than 100 carloads of canned goods have been shipped from the plant here in February alone. The incoming shipments include lumber, building materials and feed. Chamber of Commerce officials indicated that from 400 to 500 carloads of foodstuffs and building materials may be moved in and out of Campbell during the year.

The industrial committee headed by Mario Saia is actively interested in this program and Sam Cava, president, indicates new industry may locate here within the year.

Garrison for commercial building 230 feet north of Latimer on Winchester Road, the building being 140 feet long, 40 feet deep with facilities for 70 car parkings, the overall site being 196 feet by 126 feet, the building to have seven stores.

Community Service Disbands; To Begin Alloting Funds

By Vivian Faulkner

The Campbell Area Community Service Fund organization voted unanimously Monday evening to disband the local group and to affiliate with the Community Service Welfare Council of Santa Clara County after first setting up the framework for a skeleton organization which is to administer present surplus funds and to nominate officers to the Community Welfare Council at the board's election time.

The Campbell area will be represented on the board of the Welfare Council by two Campbell residents, Miss Caroline Coons, president of the Campbell Area Community Service Fund, and Mrs. Dorothy Ellis, former teacher at San Jose State College, who are to serve for three years.

Each of the nine receiving agencies will be asked to appoint a local representative to serve on the skeleton organization which is as yet unnamed, and which will also include the two Campbell representatives on the Welfare board. Their function will be to administer a present surplus fund of $1,800 which will be turned over to them immediately, and to assure continuing representation on the Welfare board.

Before disbanding the Campbell Area Service Fund discussed the portioning of collected funds which is far short of $19,500 set at the beginning of the fund drive, and decided that the School Lunch and Milk Fund, and the Library Fund, are to be paid in full with 40% of the remaining money to be distributed to all other agencies.

On the question of what to do with the $1800 surplus fund which is tagged a "disaster account" and was not collected in this year's fund raising drive, a number of suggestions were made as to its disposal by members or various agencies. The Red Cross said they would be happy to receive part or all of it, the Community Service Welfare Council suggested it could be added to their account under Campbell's name, and another came from an unofficial representative of the Campbell Youth and Community Center who suggested that as long as the funds were collected from the Campbell area residents the money should stay here and be used to help build the Center which is badly needed not only for young people but as a meeting place for adult organizations and numerous community projects.

The decision of how to disburse this fund will be the problem faced by the new skeleton organization when it meets for the first time on March 28, at Campbell High School, and it is anticipated that a few more suggestions concerning its disposal will be received at that time.

Rotary Briefed On Wiring Problems

Raymond Bouret, public relations man for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, was guest speaker at the regular Monday luncheon of the Rotary Club. Bouret showed a film which illustrated the basis problems facing all persons connected with the electrical business and spoke of troubles confronting many home owners who have inadequate wiring systems. He said today many new homes are being too heavily loaded with all kinds of electrical appliances and do not have enough outlets and fuses or proper wiring. The guest speaker was introduced by Frank Accardi who was chairman of the day.

Merv Willoughby, chairman of the Little League Project, reported that March 20th has been set for the next work day and that only the dug-outs remain to be built.

The Golden Anniversary Committee, headed by George Miskulin, has planned memorial evening for the Club March 10th at Mariani's, with a superb menu, corsages for the ladies and a band for dancing.

PROPOSED NEW CITY OF SAN TOMAS

Here is a rough outline of the boundaries for the proposed new city of San Tomas which is said by proponents to be a defensive move against strip annexations by San Jose and a bulge from the Campbell border line. It would hit the present Campbell city limits on the south side of Budd avenue, go west beyond the newly annexed Westchester Park, north to Campbell avenue, west across San Tomas Aquino around a proposed new annexation for Campbell then north to Payne avenue.

BPWC Learns About Atom Smashing

"A Is For Atom", a colored film illustrating how an atom is smashed and what happens afterwards to set off chain reaction explosions, was shown at last Wednesday's meeting of the Business and Professional Womens Club by Dr. F. Albert Ellis, professor at San Jose State College and one of the four radiation experts in this area. The film explained in terms a layman could understand how nutrons and protons are separated and how the magnetic mass holding them together is thrown with force from the atom and explodes, setting off a chain of explosions in the magnetic masses of every atom it touches.

The B. P. W. C. will hold its International Dinner Wednesday, March 9th, at 7:00 p. m. at the Villa Felice. At this time Mrs. Dorothy Royce, principal of Campbell Grammar School; and Mrs. Frances Cousins, school secretary, will speak and show films made while on their trip to Europe last summer to the Scandinavian countries. Members will be contacted by phone for reservations.

To Preserve Education Standards

CAMBRIAN SCHOOL ELECTION IS SET FOR NEXT THURSDAY

With a total of 1335 pupils filling the Cambrian School built for 750 today, interest is keen in the district for the opening March 14 of the new Steindorf school which will take 395 students, and for the election next Thursday to increase the tax ceiling from 90c to $1.50 for maintenance and operation of these schools.

The present tax rate, set in 1927 is insufficient to cope with costs of maintaining and operating three schools on the basis of the dollar value of today, according to Delos Bagby, superintendent. The Cambrian School district is residential of low assessed valuation per pupil. Of 23 districts in the County, it ranks 21st by assessed value per pupil, the range being from $14,522 to $4,359 for Cambrian School. Bagby points out that with such a low assessed value per pupil and low tax rate maximum, it is difficult to operate the present school, let alone set up and operate additional schools to take care of rising elementary school populations. Every school in the valley facing the same problem have had to increase their tax base. This is not a bond election to build a school, but an operation tax, so lots of supplies and services would be cut out if not approved by the electorate.

Cost per average homeowner will be from 50c to $1.50 per month. Bagby says that many new homes are being built today in the Cambrian School District and each of these homes averages one and a half children. Funds are needed to educate new pupils. The State pays the major part of the pupil cost per year but the balance is needed from local sources by local district tax.

YOUTH CENTER FUND IS HELPED BY BILLY WILSON PROGRAM HERE

Big, stout men walked into the auditorium of the Campbell High School Saturday night, most of them having driven 100 or more miles, to be a part of the program honoring a fellow team mate, Billy Wilson of Campbell, member of the San Francisco 49er football team.

Boys and girls, even grown men stood in line for autographs from such famous players as Joe Perry, one of the few in football history to gain more than 1000 yards in a single season, Bruno Banducci, 49er captain and all american from Stanford, Gordon Soltau, Y. A. Tittle, the quarterback who completed 149 of the 259 passes thrown in the 1954 season, Bob St. Claire 6 foot, nine inch tackle, Clay Mathews, Hardy Brown, Jim Cason, speedy McElhenny who movies shown Saturday had him darting through bunches of players ahead of any tacklers to the goal lines, of Billy Wilson, the hometown boy who was graduated from Cambrian Grammar School and Campbell High School to become the greatest end in professional football.

Bob Fouts and Frankie Albert, T. V. show operators were on hand as the masters of ceremonies along with Bob Bloom of Radio KEEN.

Mayor Richard Morton opened the program with an address of welcome and commending the Campbell Police Auxiliary for work in this program, funds from which were to go for a youth center. He said other organizations should back the movement and let it become a community project, as proposed by the auxiliary. He said the city was proud to honor Billy Wilson and family.

Later when Frankie Albert introduced Wilson there were many gifts for him from Campbell merchants and friends. As each player was introduced, a 17-piece band of professional musicians led by Sam Cava played his college song. The music was exceptionally good.

Inclement weather conditions resulted in having a small crowd for this outstanding program which presented for the first time the 1954 films of the 49er game highlights. Members of the Police Auxiliary said fewer than 250 outsiders attended with ticket sales of $258, while merchants contributed $771 for program ads. Seating capacity of 1150 was not nearly filled, while across the street in the Grammar School, more than 400 turned out for a square dance going on at the same time.

CORRECTION

Commerciaal Center at 20 E. Campbell avenue has been advertising accounting and office supplies of which they are well stocked. In the February 17 issue the Press inadvertantly omitted the word "and" so it seemed the firm was advertising an accounting service which was not the intent of the advertiser or the paper.

EDITORIAL

LET'S FACE IT

Somewhere along the line, the purpose of the Billy Wilson Day program in Campbell must have fallen by the wayside. We can hardly point with pride to the response for such a worthy cause in relation to the effort made by those participating.

The purpose, twofold, was (1) to honor a young man who was graduated from both the grammar and high schools here and went on to become one of the nation's greatest players in professional football and who proudly has named Campbell as his home and has turned down an offer at increased pay to play in Canada because he said publicly that Campbell is the finest place in all the world to live, and (2) to turn over all the proceeds to a fund for a youth or community center in Campbell.

A dozen or so of Billy Wilson's teammates travelled through bad weather, some for hundreds of miles just to keep this appointment. Some musicians got clearance from their union to perform gratis at this event, giving hours of their time. Members of the Campbell Police Auxiliary also gave many hours of their spare time in the interest of ticket sales and program arranging. Getting these players to come to Campbell for an affair like this would seem veryy difficult, as most cities are content with two or three players, but the Campbell Press and the committee successfully lined them up. It was a good program, deserving of better support.

All this is past now, and it is not our function to scold. The thought of a community center, embracing also a youth center, is something well worth thinking about by everyone. Mayor Richard Morton in opening the program, well expressed this point.

There are organizations, large and small in Campbell having no place to meet except by paying fees which they find difficult to meet, or running into conflicting schedules. Then there is the parking problem.

At least one organization, established here for many years, is considering changing its meeting place from Campbell to Cambrian Park, and that could be the start of a series of such moves, unless we face the facts that a community center is needed. It is up to you, to think about it now, before it is too late.

ARE THEY REALLY WORTH IT?

As this is not an election year, Congressmen voted to raise their pay. Instead of $15,000, they will now get $23,750 a year. Seems like a lot of money to those of us content to get by with much less. If we get into that bracket, the old boy with the whiskers tells us to divvy up, because he wants some of it, probably for the increased pay to the boys back there who voted for it themselves. A good Congressman is worth every cent of the pay and a bad one isn't worth a dime. We've heard it before that the increase will attract a better type of representative, but we don't go along too strongly on that score. What we want done back there in Washington is less talk and more action, more business of a constructive nature, and less political bickering, vote trading, televised investigations and talk marathons. We need statesmen, and there isn't a sensible voter who would hesitate to pay a good price for them. But when the prima-donna temperaments enter the picture, that pay increase hurts. Congressmen who voted against the pay increase are really sitting pretty, as they get both the raise and the credit for having voted against it.

MASS PRODUCTION AT MILPITAS

Milpitas, the newest of incorporated cities of Santa Clara County was part of a Spanish land grant at its beginning in 1835, its name meaning "little corn patch." It followed Campbell and Los Altos in being incorporated since three years ago.

Last Wednesday, however, the Ford Motor Company opened its huge new assembly plant, employing 1650 production workers, and today Milpitas is an up-and-coming industrial community.

The new plant replaces Ford's 25-year-old assembly plant in Richmond 50 miles to the north. In a remarkably planned move, only two days' production of cars and trucks was suspended while machinery was dismantled in the Richmond plant, trucked to the new location and installed.

Joining in the move were an estimated 98 percent of Ford workers formerly employed in the Richmond plant. About 400 of them already have bought homes in Milpitas and the surrounding area, where subdividers are building over a thousand new homes.

No less radical than the plant's effects on Milpitas' living patterns are the technical changes in the plant itself. According to industry reports, it is the latest word in engineering design. Automation, the wave of the industrial future, has been built into the Milpitas plant in many ways.

According to the Wall Street Journal, the Milpitas plant will turn out 440 trucks and autos daily, employing 1,650 workers on a one-shift, eight hour day. The Richmond plant turned out 350 units daily, employing 1,350 workers on a nine-hour shift. The man-hour ratio for each unit produced at the new plant is 30.0, compared with 34.7 at Richmond.

This reduction, brought about by the press welder and various other forms of automation, is considered extremely important because direct labor accounts for about 30 percent of the cost for each automobile.

WANDERING ABOUT Mt. Vernon recently while waiting overseas assignment, Dick Faulkner, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Faulkner of Rosemary Lane said the mansion seems to have been restored to its original shape although only about sixty per cent of the furniture is that used by the George Washington family . . . house looks sharp outside but the inside seems a mass of wooden ribbing . . . upstairs he saw the bed in which Washington died which like other beds in the mansion were from three to four feet off the ground and all had the traditional canopy overhead . . . . downstairs in a den was a globe of small wooden squares cemented together to form a sphere. . . the various buildings were connected to the main house with breezeways and the facilities included candlesticks and a fireplace in each room, and Dick says he wouldn't trade one of the low priced houses of today for it if he had to live there . . . one of the coaches recently restored to its original shape was beautiful even though it had four iron springs that curled to about head high and from those springs were leather straps to prevent side sway . . . from Mt. Vernon young Faulkner went over to Arlington Cemetery where he saw the grave of the unknown soldier and the marine memorial of Joe Rosenthal's picture of flag raising at Iwo Jima.

CHARMING Little Nancy Richards who wrote that nice piece about the housekeeper and the homemaker seems to have had quite an exciting experience a few months ago while on a train trip from Campbell to Chicago as the dining car caught fire and the train had to be stopped so passengers could de-train right smack up there in the mountains . . now a candidate from Campbell High School in the statewide contest for best homemaker student, Nancy already has the American Legion award, is sealbearer for California Scholarship Federation, is student council and senior cabinet representative, sings in the choir, works on the school paper, active in the dance club, enjoys horseback riding, reading, basketball and eating spaghetti, thinks best teacher she ever had was in the 2-4 grades because she taught that a good sense of humor is a basic principal one must have to be a good homemaker.

REVERSIONARY CLAUSE In the deed of the Union School district prevents the board from selling the 40 year old school at Union avenue and the Los Gatos-Almaden road, the idea being that if the land is used for other than school purposes the title reverts back to heirs of original owners . . . . something like that happened at San Carlos where Nat Brittan had given land for the S. P. depot so stone could be used in its construction similar to that being used for Stanford University, with a place for him to drive in his horses, the deed stipulating that the design or materials was not to be changed, so when in 1906 it crumbled with the earthquake the S. P. figured on rebuilding with other materials until Nat came around and said, "uh-uh, you'll rebuild it just like it was or move your lines someplace else" and they did just as he said except that the porte cochere has since been closed in as an extra office.

Editor, Campbell Press

Thank you for your sincere effort in behalf of the Billy Wilson program. It isn't every newspaper that will devote weeks, time, labor and space to a program of this sort for so little remuneration. Thank you Mr. Merchant of Campbell for your unequalled cooperation; you are the first always to be approached for financial help and you came through 100% strong. Thanks to the 49ers and their wives some of whom travelled many miles to help a fellow team mate, to the TV and radio people for spot announcements. All of you have been a help to youth of Campbell, in fair play, and team work toward a common, unselfish goal.

This is still February, the month we think of our country's founding fathers and their principals.

"All men are created equal", says the Declaration of Independence.

Recent developments in Union district in regard to San Jose annexation seems to uphold the ideas that:

All p eople who hold large amounts shall determine what happens to the small landowner,

People whose land values are high will decide matters,

What is biggest is best.

This is a reversion to the type of tyrannical precepts our fathers hated and overthrew.

Yet we present-day Americans are supposed to take it lying down and shrugging our shoulders! !

On January 3, the city manager of San Jose pointed to the Los Gatos-Almaden road running through the middle of Union district and said,

"This line marks the logical limit of an area served by this service center." That the service center was not yet built was beside the point.

Later that month in a meeting with Campbell officials, the same road was pointed out at the southern limit of San Jose.

Last week two San Jose annexations south of the line were proposed. Union No. 2 was requested by property owners of a large parcel of land including Union Elementary School.

The second piece, Lone Hill No. 1, has half below the line and includes the property of at least two small landowners.

SANTA CLARA UPSETS CAMPBELL TO WIN SCVAL CHAMPIONSHIP

By Bob Olson

Campbell's Varsity Five lost the SCVAL title 57-40 last Friday night to a hot Santa Clara team which made few mistakes and exhibited amazing free throw proficiency and slick ball control. The Bucs were unable to stop Bob Lister, Santa Clara's tall freshman and the SCVAL player of the year. The speedy 6' 5" center scored eighteen points, ten of them on free throws after being fouled by frustrated Buc guards. For the first time this season Tony Schraub fouled out in the first half.

	W	L
Santa Clara	6	0
Campbell	5	1
Fremont	3	3
Mt. View	3	3
Los Gatos	3	3
James Lick	1	5
Washington	0	6

The Santa Clara freshman forward, Larry Guilford scored only four points but kept grabbing off important rebounds for the Panthers. Most important Panther defensive man in this game was Ray Araujo who broke up Buc plays seven times by stealing the ball.

Santa Clara didn't beat the Bucs with individual stars as much as brilliant team play. Lister only used half of his scoring opportunities; in fact, Santa Clara's best play was an under-the-basket handoff from Lister to forward Ron Stevenson. Santa Clara played its five "iron men" without substitution until the last two minutes of the game. Then Panther mentor, Dean Giles, took his men out one at a time so that each player would receive his applause from the Santa Clara rooting section. Last to leave the game, Bob Lister earned the largest hand ever given a visiting player in the Buc gym.

The game ended the conference basketball season and dashed all Buc hopes for a third straight SCVAL title. Neither the fans nor the players gave up Friday night until the game was officially over, and local high school fortune never reached a low like in the third quarter when the Bucs scored but two points for the Panthers 18. Even though they missed another championship this current Campbell team gave us many interesting evenings and give promise of a good 1955-56 season as well. The two Buc stars of the year, guard Vernon Lunt, and forward Phil Arman, are both juniors and will both be back for another year of competition.

Rotarians To Attend District Conference

Thirty-two Rotarians from Campbell plan to attend the annual conference of the No. 155 District of Rotary International from March 3rd to 5th inclusive in Santa Cruz, President Les Harmon of Campbell Rotary Club said today.

Representatives from the 48 Rotary Clubs in the Central California coastal cities which make up the District will also attend the conference. This meeting is held each year, Harmon said, to review Rotary service activities and to make plans for increasing their effectiveness during the coming year.

Dan Proctor, Rotary International Presidents' representative, who is President of Oklahoma College for Women at Chicasha, Oklahoma, will make the principal address at the conference.

District Governor G. F. Bacon, past president of Rotary Club in Santa Clara, will preside at the conference sessions. Sam Leask III of Santa Cruz is in charge of arrangements for the district conference.

At the conference a Rotarian will be nominated to serve as Governor of this Rotary District for the 1955-56 fiscal year. He will take office on July 1, 1955, as the official representative of Rotary International, the world-wide organization of all Rotary Clubs in the No. 155 District. The new governor will be formally elected, along with more than 200 other district governors from all parts of the world, at Rotary Internationas' 1955 convention in Chicago, Illinois, in May.

These district governors will coordinate the service work of some 400,000 business and professional executives who are members of 8,300 Rotary Clubs in 89 countries and geographical regions.

ARTHRITIS?
I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.
Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me, I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

'PRESS' ALL-SCVAL VARSITY REPRESENTS SIX SCHOOLS

This year's Campbell Press All-SCVAL Varsity represents six different conference schools. Only Washington High School of Centerville failed to place a man on these first or second honor teams; this is understandable since the Huskies had their worst season in fifteen years of play, failing to win a single contest, conference or non-conference.

(VARSITY)

FIRST TEAM

Forward Phil Arman (Campbell)
Forward Jim Fuller (Los Gatos)
Center Bob Lister (Santa Clara)
Guard Ray Araujo (Santa Clara)
Guard Vernon Lunt (Campbell)

SECOND TEAM

Forward Ron Stevensen(S. Clara)
Forward Dan Ortiz (Mt. View)
Center Leon Donahue (James Lick)
Guard Ray Elkins (Santa Clara)
Guard Phil Kelly (Fremont)

(LIGHTWEIGHTS)

FIRST TEAM

Forward John Escobar (Mt. View)
Forw'rd Frank Escobar (Mt. View)
Center John Bogonyi (Campbell)
Guard Ed Alvarez (James Lick)
Guard Paul Uyeda (Campbell)

SECOND TEAM

Forward D. Klassen (Campbell)
Forward M. Paler (Washington)
Center J. Magelby (Los Gatos)
Guard Ben Mendez (Mt. View)
Guard Bob Nakamoto (Mt. View)

Jim Fuller of Los Gatos was a one man team for the Wildcats, high point man in the conference, he scored a total of 94 points in league play, averaging over nineteen points a game. His sharpshooting nearly defeated Campbell in the league opener, and his efforts almost resulted in a Wildcat upset of Santa Clara as well. Finally, last Friday night, his twenty points helped Los Gatos defeat the Fremont Indians 47-44.

Most aggressive forward in the SCVAL this year was Phil Arman of the Bucs, playing his first year for Campbell having recently moved to this area from Arkansas. Arman, a dead eye on the free throw line and always dangerous anywhere near the basket, made the difference in several Buc victories.

Center Bob Lister of Santa Clara proved to be the surprise of the SCVAL loop this year. Many Campbell fans, who saw him play for the first time last Friday night, regard him as one of the finest high school athletes to make a local appearance. Though only a freshman, the 6 5" Panther pivot man played like a veteran and had the grace of a Globetrotter. His left handed hook shot is impossible to stop; either he makes two points or you end up by fouling him. When this happens, he seldom misses a free throw; he shot nine in a row against the Bucs last Friday night. With Lister, Santa Clara is bound to be a threat for three more seasons, for he is a teamplayer as well as a spectacularly individual star.

One guard spot on our starting five also must go to the Panthers. Ray Araujo plays defense like a cat. His speed and agility enabled him to "steal" balls from every team in the conference. Once he got the ball he scored with it. The best guard in the league, he was also the SCVAL's eighth highest scorer, hitting for an average of ten points a game.

The other defensive position on our dream team is manned by Vernon Lunt of Campbell, another surprise player who was brought up from last year's Thirties and quickly became the Buc "take charge" guy, gaining a reputation in the conference for being Campbell's "little playmaker".

Crossing Lights Given Approval

The Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors on Monday allocated $9500 to supplement the State's $57,000 cost for traffic safety signals at the Union avenue crossing of the Los Gatos- San Jose Road.

The project calls for two traffic islands, traffic channels and four way lanes at this intersection.

Action on this project by the state and county is due to a great extent to the thoughtful work of John J. Parker of Cambrian Park who made several contacts with authorities at Sacramento and San Francisco to present the needs for safety controls at this angle-like crossing.

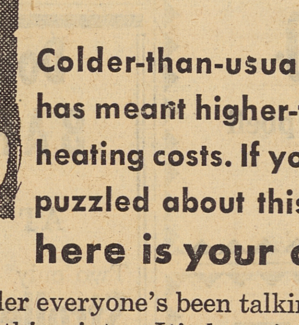
Br-r-r-r! was this a California winter?



Colder-than-usual weather has meant higher-than-usual heating costs. If you've been puzzled about this...
here is your answer:

No wonder everyone's been talking about the weather this winter. It's been just plain cold around here—matter of fact, one of the coldest winters in recent years. Remember that long string of chilly days in December and January—six shivery weeks, right around the clock.

Naturally, with weather like this, it took more heat to keep most houses warm. P. G. and E. delivered nearly as much natural gas to homes this December and January — in just two months—as in the three months of November, December and January a year ago. That's how much difference a prolonged cold spell can make. (Most homes need more electric lighting this time of year, too . . . because of the short, darker days.)

So if you check your bills for this December and January and find your heating costs are higher than last year, it's almost entirely because of colder-than-usual weather...and the fact that most California homes aren't built for it. (For example, those big picture windows we Californians like so much let in almost as much chill as sunlight. And most homes aren't sufficiently insulated, either.) But maybe there's one good thing about a winter like this after all: It's sure going to make spring seem extra nice, isn't it?

Cub Pack Founder At Cambrian Blue And Gold Dinner

At its annual Blue and Gold Dinner in Cambrian School Cafeteria Friday evening, Pack 10 heard Joseph Bennett, founder of America's first chartered Cub Scout Pack in Campbell, who was the guest speaker. In his talk to the boys, Reverend Bennett stated that the ideals of Cubbing made for sound American citizenship. He advised the boys to find the right direction in life to take. Lastly, he pointed out that victory in life is dependent on the Cubs' preparation for it. Cubmaster Henry Schatmeier presided.

The guest entertainer for the evening was Les Landin and his five Buck Skinners. This group appears on television and is known as the "Buckskin Bob Show". Landin used cartooning to tell the story of Ponce de Leon. Also, during the course of this entertainment, he neatly brought in science and arithmetic. Landin is a seventh grade teacher at Saratoga School.

Since the San Jose YWCA celebrates its fiftieth birthday this year and the world-wide organization its centennial, the membership drive is being conducted jointly with a fund-raising campaign for a centennial birthday gift.

Members and friends are raising a fund of $10,000 to be used in expansion of Y services and program, especially in outlying communities.

The drive for renewal of memberships and contributions to the the birthday fund will continue through March, Mrs. Gobar announces. Pledges may be made for a three-year period.

CAMBRIAN FACULTY GIVES A PARTY

The faculty of Cambrian School gave a party and variety show last Thursday for all Room Mothers in appreciation for all the fine work they have done on behalf of the school, with special thanks to Lee Critchlow for her efficient organization.

A high spot in he show was the appearance of a comedy quartet consisting of teachers Betty Wegner, Emily Benofs, Joy Wilson and Carmel La Malfa, school principal, dressed in prisoner suits of black and white stripes with large tether ball tied to their legs and singing "Let Me Go, Bagby", a takeoff on the popular song. The object of their wails was seated on the stage nearby dressed as a gay nineties villain complete with big cigar, mustache, black hat and leer.
